NEWFIELD

PUBLIC LIBRARY

THE NEWFIELD PUBLIC LIBRARY has been a busy place in 2008. We have served the community through our book collection, programs, technology, and public service. The following is a summary of our activities.

PROGRAMS

- The Book Club meets on the 3rd Thursday of each month at 7:00.
- Pre-K classes visit the library each month.
- A Community story time hosted by the SPCA is scheduled monthly on the 3rd Thursday at 10:00.
- Knitting club meets weekly on Wednesday at 6:30.
- A Genealogy group meets monthly on the 1st Saturday.
- Art classes for children are held weekly on Tuesdays at 4:00.

HOW CAN YOU HELP?

Support your library by donating your time, used books, or through a cash donation. Book donations are accepted during regular library hours. To volunteer or make a monetary donation, contact Tina Winstead at 564-3594.
