Libraries Transform Fall Book Pick

The Libraries Transform Book Pick is a popular digital reading program that connects readers nationwide by offering free access to the same ebook through public libraries. Since NPL currently participates in OverDrive will be able to lend unlimited copies of the ebook to borrowers during the reading period September 14-28, 2020, which makes it a great pick for a book club. See our website for book discussion resources.

This September's pick is Book of the Little Axe by Lauren Francis-Sharma.

September is also Library Card Sign-up Month. Already have a card? Then it's a great time to make sure your registration is up-to-date so you can access the Book Pick and other digital and print content. It's easy. Just give us a ring and we'll update your information.
