

POLICY
ART DISPLAY
Newfield Public Library

The Board of Trustees of the Newfield Public Library feels it is desirable to display local and regional artists' works of art.

Purpose of this Policy:

- To establish guidelines for the display of artwork owned by community members in the Library.
- To establish the display coordinator's responsibilities.

Guidelines:

- Artwork will be displayed for approximately two months or a period of time agreed upon between the artist and the display coordinator.
- Each artist displaying work at the Library will complete an Exhibit Form prior to displaying their work. Included on this form is a list of items being displayed, contact information for the artist, a liability waiver and dates of the display. A copy of the form is attached.
- Artwork that a reasonable person would consider offensive or sexually explicit will not be displayed. The Library Board of Trustees will resolve any disagreements regarding appropriateness.
- The Library staff will immediately contact the Board of Trustees, display coordinator and the artist if any damage occurs to a piece of artwork while on display at the Library.

Display Coordinator's Responsibilities

- The display coordinator will be appointed for a one year term by the Board of Trustees and be chosen from the Newfield community, including Trustees and serves at the pleasure of the board.
- The display coordinator will report to the Board of Trustees, as needed, on any issues regarding artwork displayed and keep them updated on the display calendar.
- The display coordinator will be responsible for obtaining signed Exhibit Forms, making arrangements for set-up and removal of artwork, publicity, and thank - you's. A file will be maintained for this purpose at the Library.
